Sobha Realty, an international luxury developer committed to redefining the art of living through sustainable communities, has announced several offers for potential home-owners during the Holy Month of Ramadan

Speaking on the move, Jyotsna Hegde, President of Sobha Realty, said: "At Sobha Realty we are quick to respond to customer demand, whether through designing intuitive living spaces or offering attractive payment plans that further boost market sentiment. This season, we have a diverse suite of attractive rewards for our buyers – from multiple shopping vouchers that can be redeemed at The Dubai Mall, worth AED5,000 each, to furniture vouchers ranging in value from AED10,000 to AED 15,000 on apartment purchases, and AED100,000 on booking a townhouse or villa. We are also offering our buyers a two-night hospitality package for two persons."

"In addition, Sobha Hartland boasts two of the most prestigious schools in the city – the North London Collegiate School from the UK and Hartland International. Our buyers are eligible for discounts on the tuition fees of up to 32 per cent in both institutions. Our incentives reflect the leading status of Sobha Realty as an international luxury developer committed to redefining the art of living."
