Sobha Realty, the leading premium real estate developer, bagged the UAE's Most Luxurious Developer of the Year honour at the Luxury Network International Awards.

Under the patronage of His Excellency Sheikh Nahyan bin Mubarak Al Nahyan, Minister of State for Tolerance and UAE Cabinet Member, the event was hosted by the Luxury Network and CAEL. The international awards recognise luxury companies and brands across various sectors for their path-breaking initiatives and achievements.

Shadi Aslan, Deputy General Manager – Marketing from Sobha Realty received the accolade during the gala dinner and award ceremony at Caesars Palace, Bluewaters Dubai in the presence of the industry's top brass.

With a focus on bespoke, flawlessly crafted luxury living experience, the company's flagship development, Sobha Hartland is the preferred choice for world-class real estate investments.

The mission of the Luxury Network International Awards is to acknowledge well-established companies and recognise emerging luxury brands at the local and international level.
